Suggested completion time: 15-25 minutes

Student-facing overview

Early Decision is binding; Early Action is generally nonbinding.

Learning target

I can use a current official source to choose and document one next step related to application types and platforms.

What to know

- A platform is not an admission plan.
- Early Decision is binding; Early Action is generally nonbinding.
- Rolling admission continues until capacity is reached.
- Program, scholarship, and aid deadlines may differ.

Complete these steps

1. Identify the institution and intended program.
2. Verify the accepted application platform.
3. Compare available application plans.
4. Review binding terms, deadlines, and required documents.
5. Consider financial aid and scholarship timing.
6. Choose the plan and record follow-up tasks.

Student response

- My next action is...

- The person or organization that owns this information is...
- One detail I verified, and the date/source I used is...
- My follow-up date is...

Before you submit

- Use an official or school-approved source.
- Do not include sensitive personal information in a class discussion post.
- Ask a counselor or trusted adult if the requirement or next step is unclear.
