

Launch Into Your Future

First-Generation Student Supports

Student Learning Deck

Three ideas to use now

- Know this
- Explain the hidden curriculum in plain language.
- Connect students to advising, mentoring, tutoring, financial, and belonging supports.
- Include families without assuming prior college knowledge.

What to know. What to verify.

Start here

- Explain the hidden curriculum in plain language.
- Connect students to advising, mentoring, tutoring, financial, and belonging supports.

Verify before acting

- Do not promise eligibility, availability, admission, funding, placement, credit, licensure, or an outcome.
- Recheck dynamic information with the official owner before the student acts.

Build your action plan

- Next moves

- Identify unfamiliar terms or processes.
- Build a support map for applications, aid, academics, wellbeing, and career planning.
- Ask how each support is accessed.
- Practice student-led questions and communication.

Use it now

Exit ticket

Write the next action you will take about First-Generation Student Supports. Name the official person or office that can verify your information, and choose a follow-up date.

